ADVANCING THE FIGHT AGAINST WORKPLACE DISCRIMINATION

The firm, in existence since 1949, has dedicated its efforts to the field of employment law and is proud to be the voice of those discriminated against. As a result, the firm has achieved landmark court decisions that have broadened legal protections for victims, which have been recognized by the national news media, and obtained noteworthy settlements and verdicts for its clients. Since long before the #metoo and #timesup movements, Schwartz Perry & Heller has been at the forefront of empowering brave silence breakers in their quest to achieve equality in the workplace. The firm is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell, representing the highest legal ability and a strong adherence to professional ethics.

Dawida S. Perry has received Super Lawyers recognition for 10 years and is one of New York magazine's Women Leaders in the Law since 2009. As the blight of sexual harassment is emerging from the shadows, Ms. Perry has been called upon by various national media outlets to render her professional insight on cases that have made headline news. Partner Brian Heller has been a Super Lawyers honoree since 2013 and has been responsible for numerous trial and appellate victories for victims of employment discrimination. Associate Daniel Kovel has been recognized on the 2018 Rising Stars list.
